

Head Over Heels (written by Douglas Wesley Haines 2002 - ©2011 – All Rights Reserved)

I still remember what you said and the way you turned your head how you looked at me last night I still remember everything that we talked about you see I can't forget your kiss goodnight

I've fallen head over heels over you and I don't know just what to say or to do cause I've never had someone hold me like you and I've fallin head over heels over you

I've never had so much fun doin whatever comes to mind no attention to time I've never felt so at ease just doing just what we please can't get you out of my mind

I've fallen head over heels over you
and I don't know just what to say or to do
and I've fallin head over heels over you

I still remember what you said
and the way you turned your head
how you looked at me last night
I still remember everything
that we talked about you see
I can't forget your kiss goodnight

and I don't know just what to say or to do
and I've fallin head over heels over you

and I don't know just what to say or to do
cause I've never had someone hold me like you and I've fallin head over heels I've fallin head over heels I've fallin head over heels over you
